

West Coast Chamber Music presents

Peter and the Wolf

West Coast Chamber Music has produced various children's concerts over its 23-year history, in addition to its regular series of classical concerts. The children's shows traditionally combine classical music with storytelling, theatre and dance as a way to make classical music more accessible and relevant and fun for young audiences. West Coast Chamber Music has presented at their home venue, community venues and elementary schools in the Lower Mainland. Peter and the Wolf is their current show.

Peter and the Wolf, a musical folk tale by Prokofiev, is imaginatively recreated using piano, percussion and a variety of wind instruments; flute, clarinet, bass clarinet, alto and soprano saxophone. The storytelling is theatrically brought to life on stage via exquisite masks and body puppets, and using a blend of mime, pantomime and dance. With a little help from the audience, the result is a musically exciting, humorous and vivid performance of this timeless piece.

Discipline: Interdisciplinary | Grades: K-6 | Duration: 45 minutes
Capacity: 500 students | # in group: 4 | Home base: Vancouver
Fee Range: $665-$965 includes ArtStarts' fee
